State of Maine.

The undersigned, Commissioners of Fisheries for the State of Maine, hereby give notice that under and by virtue of the provisions of the Statute of this State, passed A. D. 1878, and approved February, 1878, entitled "An Act to regulate and protect fisheries and the propagation of fish," Section 21, they have set apart for the purpose of cultivation of fish and more particularly of salmon, shad and alewives, the following described waters within the County of Penobscot, viz: All the waters of the Penobscot river between the toll bridge leading from Bangor to Brewer on the one side and the dam across the river at Treat's Falls, so called, erected by the city of Bangor for the purpose of supplying the city with water on the other. And all persons are cautioned and forbid from taking or killing any fish therein, under a penalty of not less than ten dollars and no more than one hundred dollars, and a further penalty of one dollar for each fish so taken and killed.

Witness our hands at Bangor on this 2d day of March, A. D. 1878.

E. M. STILWELL,
HENRY O. STANLEY.

This notice is not intended to apply to the catching of any other fish than salmon, shad and alewives, or to the catching of any fish within said limits by the ordinary mode of angling with single hook and line or artificial flies at a distance below the dam of at least one hundred yards.

WAR of 1812.
Pensions, Pensions

A law has just passed giving a Pension of $96 per year to all Soldiers of the War of 1812, who served 14 days, or were in any engagement, and their widows, also, are entitled to the same pension, regardless of the date of their marriage. I am authorized to obtain these pensions for all who are entitled.

Application can be made to me in person at my office in Bangor, or by letter. The earlier the application the better for the applicant.

I have all the rolls and records of every soldier of the war, with their names in alphabetical order so that every soldier's service can be readily ascertained.

No other person in Maine has these records, except C. P. Brown, Esq.

Don't entrust your claims to unreliable and inexperienced hands.

[illegible]

Congress has just passed a law giving a Pension of $8 per month to all Soldiers of the War of 1812 who served 14 days or were in battle—and the same pension to the widows of all such soldiers.

This entitles all to a pension who have received Land Warrants.

All desiring the pension can obtain it by applying to me in person at my office, or by letter.

I have all the old Rolls, on which is borne the names of all soldiers of the War of 1812, with the place and length of service, date of discharge, and all facts; and I can give full and exact information in every case.

Also a record of most of the Land Warrants granted to these soldiers.

No person, east of Portland, has these rolls, except myself and A. J. Chapman, Esq., of Bangor, —he has equal facilities for obtaining these pensions. He was formerly a clerk in my office.

C. P. BROWN,
BANGOR.

NOTICE
TO CONSUMERS
—OF—
TOBACCO.

The great celebrity of our TIN TAG TOBACCO has caused many imitations thereof to be placed on the market, we therefore caution all Chewers against purchasing such imitations.

All dealers buying or selling other plug tobacco bearing a hard or metallic label, render themselves liable to the penalty of the Law, and all persons violating our trade marks are punishable by fine and imprisonment. SEE ACT OF CONGRESS, AUG. 14, 1876.

The genuine LORILLARD TIN TAG TOBACCO can be distinguished by a TIN TAG on each lump with the word LORILLARD stamped thereon.

Over 5,088 tons tobacco sold in 1877, and nearly 3,000 persons employed in factories.

Taxes paid Government in 1877 about $3,500,000, and during past 12 years, over $20,000,000.

A GOLDEN WEDDING.

The fiftieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Fairbanks, was celebrated at their home, "Prospect Farm," Wayne, April 1, 1878, by children and grandchildren, brothers and sisters, nephews and nieces, grand-nephews and grand-nieces and invited guests, about fifty in all. To all present it must have been an exceedingly pleasant and happy occasion. The mud was deep and the weather lowering. By twelve, noon, the guests had about all arrived and found that though it was lowering without, it was golden sunshine in the social atmosphere within. Soon after their arrival, every guest was furnished with a neatly printed and well arranged programme of the exercises of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks in their day have been leading musical characters, Mr Fairbanks having for many years been a teacher of music, and himself and his good wife having long stood at the head of the church choir. It will therefore be no surprise to any of their successors, children and grandchildren, that they are fond of music, or that in the midst of other interesting and noteworthy features of the occasion a rich musical entertainment should have been the leading part. It was fitting that it should be so. For fifty years the refining, elevating influence of music had pervaded this home. Here its lullaby had soothed the tired child to sleep, it had cheered the lonely hour, helped to refresh the weary, enlivened the social gathering, and made happy the domestic circle.

Mr. George Washington Fairbanks, the bridegroom and host of the occasion, was born in Winthrop in 1803, and moved with his father, Col. Nathaniel Fairbanks, upon the farm where he now lives in 1814. April 1, 1828, he took his bride, Lucy Lovejoy, to this home, and here their half century of married life has been spent. He still stands erect, straight as an arrow, is a reliable and most worthy citizen, and has always been perpendicular in morals as he is in physique.

He traces his lineage back to his ancestor, John Fairbanks, who came from England to Boston, in 1633, and settled in the town of Dedham in 1633. So far as known, all the Fairbanks in the country are his descendants. One branch of the family settled in Vermont. Belonging to this branch, are the inventors of the "Fairbanks Patent Scales," and Governor Fairbanks of Vermont. The quaint old house, built by John in 1636, is still standing in Dedham. It is two hundred and forty-two years old, and I, without doubt one of the oldest—if not the oldest—of houses in New England.

Mrs. Fairbanks, the bride and hostess of the occasion, is seventy-two years old, was born in Wayne and retains in remarkable degree, the graces and charms of her youth, which have contributed so much to make cheerful and attractive her home and to enliven the social circle.

They have had born unto them five children; one of whom died in early childhood. Four, two sons and two daughters, have lived to manhood and womanhood. They are all married and all of sterling character, are all well settled and prosperous in life. George F resides in Winthrop, Henry N resides in Bangor, and Lucilla the wife of A. H. Johnson, Esq., and Julia, the wife of Major Abner R Small, reside in West Waterville. As new-fledged birds go out to build new nests of their own, leaving the parent pair still in the old nest, so the children of this couple have gone out and having made homes of their own, have left their parents the sole occupants of the home of their youth.

They come back to that home to-day to review the pleasant memories of the past, and a more than willing obedience to the command of promise, "Honor thy father and thy mother, that it may be well with thee in the land"—the fulfilment of which promise they are calling now—and, I doubt not will continue to realize hereafter.

Among those who, in spite of mire and threatening weather were present to share in the festivities of the day, were an older brother of the host, Mr. Columbus Fairbanks of Winthrop, and his wife. He is eighty-four, and like his brother, George W., still walks erect as in his prime. He was present at the wedding in 1828. The other guests present on this occasion, who were guests then, were Mrs. Julia A. Norris of Boston, a sister; and Mr. Lot Burgess of Wayne, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Fairbanks, and Mr. Nelson Packard of Winthrop.

The music, both vocal and instrumental, consisting of the piano, violin and cornet, was exceedingly fine. After pieces played and sung according to the programme, there was a pause to listen to the reading of letters from friends abroad, who unable to be present, had sent their greetings. A portion of the history of the Fairbanks ancestry was also read. After the singing of another piece the company all sat down to a bountiful collation. Dinner over, the programme was again resumed and continued to its close, interspersed with brief remarks by Col. Wing of Winthrop, and J. S. Berry, Esq., of Wayne.

At five o'clock the exercises closed with the singing of Auld Lang Syne, and the company dispersed.

To all present it was an occasion long to be remembered. It brought to view a most pleasing illustration of New England domestic life, long continued and prosperous and happy.

Well might a King on his throne envy the possession of such a lot. While it was a cheerful time of merry greetings and sparkling wit, it was also a time of grave thoughts and tender emotion. As our host listened to the singing of the tune "Geneva" to the words,

"When all thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys—"

which was sung at the wedding fifty years ago—and to the chant—"The Lord is my Shepherd," the moistened eye indicated the welling up of the fountains of the heart at the retrospect of the past, and devout recognition of the Divine Hand that had led him and his companion through a half century of prosperous and happy domestic life.

As these events have occurred on the first day of April, it is not an impossible supposition that some cynical old bachelor who could not or would not appreciate the joys of domestic life, might be tempted in the envy of his heart to say that on that All Fools day a 1828 two April fools had met. But the happy pair, in review of the past and in contemplation of the present, with serene satisfaction might appropriately reply—with a slight paraphrase of a well-known line, if theirs be foolishness—"When foolishness is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise."

Mr. Thomas F. Hayward, of Winthrop, died very suddenly. Mr. H. was as well as usual, to all appearances, and started from home to go to the village, he flying about one mile away. His wife saw him turn to come back. He came a little way and fell. She ran and met him. He said he should get up soon, but some of the neighbors came and carried him into the house. He died almost immediately. His age was 48.

Oxford.

The Press says that on Saturday evening last a man representing himself to be a cattle drover, came to Fryeburg village and represented that he had 430 odd head of cattle en route for Fryeburg to be kept over night, engaging hay for the same, which was taken and spread on the grounds of the West Oxford Agricultural Society's enclosure. He further represented that he had meat at Brownfield and wanted it moved up. He quietly got out of sight and out of town before it was found out that the whole thing was a hoax.

ACTING UNDER EXCITEMENT.

There is great fear, on the part of some amiable persons who write for the public, lest, in certain excited movements of reform, there should be those who will take steps for which they will be sorry. They argue, from this, that it is not best to have any excitement at all, and especially that nothing should be done under excitement. It so happens, however, that the path of progress has always been marked by sudden steps upward and onward. There are steady growth and steady going, it is true, but the tendency to rut-making and routine are so great in human nature that it is often only by wide excitements that a whole community is lifted and forwarded to a new level. Men often get into the condition of pig-iron. They pile up nicely in bars. They are in an excellent state of preservation. They certainly lie still, and though there is vast capacity in them for machinery, and cutlery, and agricultural implements,—though they contain measureless possibilities of spindles and spades, —there is nothing under heaven but fire that can develop their capacities and realize their possibilities.

There are communities that would never do anything but rot, except under excitement. A community often gets into a stolid, immobile condition, which nothing but a public excitement can break up. This condition may relate to a single subject or to many subjects. It may relate to temperance, or a church debt. Now it is quite possible that a man under excitement will do the thing that he has always known to be right, and be sorry for it or recede from it afterward; but the excitement was the only power that would ever have started him on the right path, or held him to stop in the wrong one. It is all very well to say that it would be a great deal better for a drunkard, coolly, after quiet deliberation and a rational decision, to resolve to forsake his cups than to take the same step under the stimulus of social excitement and the persuasions of companionship and fervid oratory, but does he ever do it? Sometimes, possibly, but not often. Without excitement and a great social movement, very little of temperance reform has ever been effected. Men are like iron; to be melted they must be heated; and to say that there should be no excitement connected with a great reform, or that a reform is never to be effected through excitement, is to ignore the basilar facts of human nature and human history.—Scribner.

Don't keep the colts tied up or shut up in the stable. If you do, they will never amount to anything. They must have fresh air, bright sunshine and plenty of exercise, to develop their muscles, expand the air cells of their lungs, and give full play to all their vital powers.

The sanctuary must be respected. The story comes from Deadwood, that a member of a certain church congregation was bowie-knifed by a zealous deacon for putting a counterfeit quarter in the contribution-box, and the excited pastor, without leaving his pulpit, shot a good deacon for creating a disturbance during divine service.

The late war in the East was terribly destructive to human life. The Russian government has officially estimated its loss of soldiery at over 80,000, and disease has probably swept away as many more Russian subjects other than military. Small pox, measles, typhus and the plague have followed in the train of war, and carried off their victims by thousands.

POTATO PLANTING.—One thing is certain,—we can not get a great growth of potatoes unless we have a rich surface soil. We can often get a big crop of clover when the surface soil is comparatively poor, provided the lower soil is rich from previous manuring, or from thorough cultivation, but this is not the case with potatoes. The surface soil must be rich in available plant-food. A clover sod turned under is a good foundation to work upon. Manure for potatoes should be rich and well rotted. Horse or sheep manure that has been used as bedding, or that from well-fed pigs is excellent. If the manure is not rich—in other words, if the animals have not been well fed—you can make up the deficiency by putting a table spoonful of nitrate of soda to each hill of potatoes. This will go towards making poor manure into rich manure, and instead of getting 100 bushels of potatoes per acre, you may expect 200 bushels. As to the Colorado beetle, where it is pest has been around for years past, it is not feared. No one thinks of being much troubled about it. Yet we hear farmers ask "Shall we plant any potatoes this year or not?" Potatoes must be raised, even if the beetle has to be fought, and Paris green is a safe and effective remedy when properly used.

"Is there danger of the supply of fuel becoming exhausted?" asks a scientific writer. If he lives in a close neighborhood, and don't keep his coal house locked, we should think there is.

ST. NICHOLAS.
SCRIBNER'S ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE
FOR GIRLS AND BOYS.
The LONDON ACADEMY, of December 29d 1877, says: "In ST. NICHOLAS we welcome the best stamp of Juvenile literature that we have yet seen. ... We have no hesitation in saying that both in the letter press and in the pictures this American-born ... has no rival.
In ST. NICHOLAS for December, the Grand Christmas Number, was begun a charming new Serial Story by Miss Alcott
"Under the Lilacs," illustrated by MARY HALLOCK FOOTE, to continue during the year. This same Christmas number, of which one hundred thousand copies were printed, contained the opening chapters of A "ROBINSON CRUSOE" STORY for boys, "Tower-Mountain," by GUSTAVUS FRANKENSTEIN, also poems by LONGFELLOW and BRYANT, a portrait of Miss Alcott, half a dozen short stories, pictures poems, etc., etc. It is the handsomest number of a child's magazine ever issued.
The NEW YORK TRIBUNE says:
"ST. NICHOLAS has a list of contributors such as no other child's magazine, or few publications of any sort, in the world can boast. It has caused the best writers in America to turn their attention to the task of giving delight and imparting culture to children. In the avalanche of immoral literature that threatens the children, some strong, vitally wholesome, and really attractive magazine is required for them, and ST NICHOLAS has reached a higher platform, and commands for this service wider resources in art and letters, than any of its predecessors or contemporaries."
ST. NICHOLAS FOR 1878,
Besides the SERIAL STORIES above announced, will have a short serial story by the author of The Schonberg-Cotta Family; and THREE SPLENDID SERIALS FOR BOYS, one of which "DRIFTED INTO PORT," by EDWIN HODDER, an English writer, will begin in March. "Around the world in a Yacht, Boys!" has been promised by a brilliant writer now on the actual tour of the world in his own yacht. There will be contributions by a daughter of the famous Peter Parley, and a Letter to Young Americans by GEORGE MACDONALD.
The "HOW" Series of instructive papers, by various authors, will tell HOW to bind your own books; HOW they mine coal; HOW to enjoy yourselves at home; HOW to be an agreeable guest; HOW to entertain company; HOW to be a carpenter; HOW to make an ice-boat; HOW to build a house; How India rubber is gathered; HOW matches are made; HOW to be a Parlor Magician; HOW money is made; HOW mackerel are caught; HOW they laid the Atlantic cable, HOW they mine in California; HOW they work in the tea-country; etc. There will be also a series of stories and sketches of Foreign Life, such as "Old Nicolai" (a Russian Story) "A Day among the Welsh Castles," "Easter in Germany," "The Indians of the Amazon," "How Kitty was lost in a Turkish Bazar," "Master Montezuma" (a Mexican story), "Hansa, the Lapp Maiden," and many others.
TRAVEL AND ADVENTURE,
"Jack-in-the-Pulpit," "Young contributors' Department," "Letter-Box," "Riddle Box," and "For Very Little Folks," will be continued.

REFORM IN EARNEST!

We regret that time and space compelled us to condense the report of the proceedings of the City Government last evening, as nothing but stenographic fullness would do justice to the burning eloquence and broad statesmanship applied to the discussion of certain great questions by two or three of our municipal Solons. Our readers will be able, however, to gather from our summary an impression of the debt of gratitude they owe to the intrepid Alderman from Ward 7, for his bold effort to free the community from the grinding oppression which enables the teachers of our primary schools to fatten and luxuriate at the public expense on their grossly exorbitant salary of nine dollars per week! And they will not fail to credit the zeal and watchfulness displayed by the keen-scented Alderman of Ward 3 in discovering "a put-up job" in the request of the Water Board for the printing of 200 copies of their Official Report. The public can readily perceive how adroitly the Water Commissioners were attempting to swamp the city treasury under such enormous contracts as the above, for the benefit of greedy printing concerns; and they will feel safer after the prompt exposure of the insidious scheme. To be sure the WHIG AND COURIER printed gratuitously, for the information of citizens, a vastly greater number of copies of the Water Board's Report; but because a bloated newspaper concern saw fit to squander its money in printing official documents, there is no reason that the City of Bangor should rush upon ruin by incurring the expense of printing two hundred copies of a Water Report for exchange with the Boards of other cities, when any Water Commissioner in the United States who wishes such information has only to come to Bangor and read the original document on file, or order a copy of the WHIG AND COURIER of March 16, 1878. The Alderman from Ward 3, deserves to be assured that the admiring eyes of the people rest upon him, and if he had no other claim to public honor, he could well rest his title as the leading champion of economy, and to the gratitude of the people, upon that grand stroke with which he met the suspicious request of the City Treasurer that certain volumes of old records have some canvas sewed upon the covers, by the instant precautionary amendment that "the job be given to the lowest bidder!"

But perhaps we ought to say that there are members of the lower board who seem disposed to contest his laurels.

THE CONFEDERATE REVIVAL

In the debate which preceded the action of the House of Representatives in electing for Doorkeeper an ex-Confederate whose political disabilities have only been removed within a few months, Hon. Eugene Hale of Maine made some pertinent remarks which are reported as follows by telegraph:—

Mr. Hale—I do not wonder that gentlemen on the other side hesitate to vote on this question. It is no surprise to me that points of order have been made, and that the previous question has been voted down, because the party on the other side is confronted with a question which shows its bias. The tracks of the party are all one way—they are in a direction about which the country is profoundly alarmed—the domination in it of the old Confederate element. The gentleman from New York (Mr. Cox) asks us why the dead past is not allowed to bury its dead, and the answer is that so fast as he and his associates gain power and have patronage to dispose of they will not let the dead past rest; but whenever any act can be done offensive to Northern sentiment in the disposition of patronage it is urged upon us and is crystalized in action. It was for that that the last Congress took as its clerk to the Committee of Ways and Means Hamilton, the man who named his child after the assassin of President Lincoln. It was because of that that the last Congress chose an ex-Sergeant-at-Arms of the Confederate House of Representatives as the doorkeeper of this House, and had to get rid of him at last because he was incompetent. It was because of that that this Winter a Southern man was taken as doorkeeper, and when he failed (as his letter in the Post, to-day, says,) to do the behests of leaders in his party, he was turned out, and when the party went into caucus again, it was confronted (for I take the reports of the newspapers as correct) with the nomination both of Confederate soldiers and Union soldiers. Gen. Shields, who is now supported on this side, was nominated in that caucus by a Southern gentleman, and was sustained by him. He was an equally good Democrat with the gentleman whom that caucus had nominated. He was equally a Southern man, residing in Missouri, where the old doorkeeper came from. He was true in every regard, in every respect, to the party principles which he had always maintained, and was as good a man as General Field. But he was overslaughed by a vote of five to one. General Shields has nothing to recommend him to this side except his loyalty and his ability and his services in the war. But, Mr. Speaker, as sure as tides and sunshine come, the party on that side has got to take this cup to their lips and has got to decide whether or not there are influences in it which do not permit in free competition a Union soldier who is a Democrat and who lives in the South, to gain a place of this kind against A Confederate soldier who deserted the flag, who went back upon his military alma mater, who went into the rebellion, and whose only strength with the Democratic party is because of that.

THE PERIL OF THE HOUR.

[From the Utica (N. Y.) Republican.]

It was the ambition of the South, during all the war of the rebellion, to capture Washington. The same ambition still moves the old rebel leaders, and by the aid of Northern Democrats they hope to accomplish their purpose. They are coming on with their war claims and their demand for remuneration for their slave property; and so eager are they in the pursuit that it is difficult for them to restrain the Southern people and keep them from defeating the plot by prematurely exposing it. The only obstacle in their way is the Republican party. They have captured the Republican President as completely as we did the Confederate—aye, more completely, for they have captured the soul and paralyzed the discerning and reasoning faculties of the President. But they have not yet captured the Republican party, though some of its members are dazed and deluded to an alarming degree, because of their laudable desire for honorable reconciliation.

The Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser thus exclaims: "Right gloriously, indeed shines to-day the ascending star of Montgomery—Montgomery, the first capital of the Southern Confederacy; the place where Jefferson Davis swore, as few have ever sworn, to be true to the people; the place where lived and died William L. Yancey, the great orator of the age; the home of the noble Clanton, and of a hundred heroes whose bones sleep in the soil of the South they loved so well."

REPUBLICANISM.

Hon. George C. Gorham, member of the Republican National Committee for California, has published a letter correcting certain reports as to what he said at the recent meeting of the Committee. He says: "I expressly stated it to be my opinion that it would be better to affirm Republican doctrines and renounce crimes of the enemy than it would to arraign the Administration for any acts committed or omitted. I did not even propose that the party should in terms disavow the course of the Administration toward Louisiana and South Carolina, but that we ought to affirm the righteousness and constitutionality of the reconstruction policy of the party, and to insist that its failure was due to the defiance of law by Southern Democrats, and not to the wickedness of Southern Republicans; that those who had sustained the laws were better and worthier political associates than those who had rebelled against and trampled them under foot." Mr. Gorham then inquires pertinently: "Was this bitter and extreme?" He then reviews the political campaigns of 1872 and 1876, and the Presidential count of 1876-7, and continues: "Is it warring upon the President to say that the laws should be obeyed, and that to deny a citizen his lawful right to vote is a crime against our system of Government? Is it 'bitter' to say the truth—that this rule is uniformly reversed in the lately rebellious States, and that a Pole in Russia, an Alsatian in Germany, or a Fenian in England, may more freely and safely utter his sentiments than can a true Republican in the Southern States of free America? Is it 'extreme' to contend that the obligation to furnish protection to a State Government against insurrection when constitutionally called upon, is imposed upon the President by the Constitution, which forbids him to leave undecided which is the Government and which the insurrection, and also forbids him to leave the State and the insurrection 'to fight it out between themselves?' Is it 'opening anew old controversies' to declare that Democratic hopes of national control are based upon law-breaking as a policy, and that nine Southern States now held in chains by the Democratic party, would be Republican if legal voters were allowed to vote? May not Republicans arouse the North to these things without antagonizing the Administration?"

Mr. Gorham then asserts that the campaign this Summer must be so carried on as to arouse the old enthusiasm of Republicans. As for the few recruits who may have followed Schurz and Key and Evarts from the Liberal, Confederate, and the Johnson camps, they are sure to rally, for they are near the commissary stores. "But as I remarked at the late meeting, "it is important that some effort should be made to catch the Republican vote." The party was not organized to distribute clerkships: that will be left to the self-styled "reformers" who have agreed to vote the Republican ticket in consideration of the patronage. Mr. Gorham says it is a trade of their own proposing. His letter concludes as follows:

"But the Republican party has higher interests in charge—to establish freedom where slavery was; to dissipate ignorance by education to insure equal rights among men, and to base our Government on the consent of the governed expressed at the ballot-box, and not on the bayonet rule of White League military clubs. These are objects for which the Republican masses can be rallied. If these are indeed dangerous themes in the Republican meeting, let us hear no more of the Republican party. If, on the other hand, they are worthy of further struggles, let us hear no miserable cant of the impolicy of offending by their utterance. Who are we afraid of offending? Is it the Greeleyites, whom we have forgiven for their treachery and for their defamation of us in 1872? Let us be frank and tell them that our forgiveness is not to be construed into an apology for having refused to desert with them.

"This Administration will only be regarded as Republican, in my judgment, upon the understanding that the presence of Mr. Evarts in the Cabinet is not indorsement of the policy of Andrew Johnson; that Gen. Devens was not appointed Attorney-General because there was any special merit in his having been the Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts against John A. Andrew in 1862; that Mr. Key is a monument of Yankee forbearance and not a 'burnin' and a shinin' light for a' this place;' that Carl Schurz is a pardoned (if not repentant) prodigal, and not the token of Presidential vindication of the infamous raid campaign of 1872; and upon the further understanding that our party cannot offend the President by demanding, in its platform, obedience to the Constitution and the laws, or by denouncing the crimes of the Democratic Party in organizing violent resistance to both. If my view is wrong—if there is to be a milk diet—then I much fear that babes only will seek nourishment from it. If the fear of Southern-claims is the only objection to Democratic rule, let those fight against that rule who can be stirred only by the fear of having their pockets disturbed. If the present wholesale disfranchisement of our party in a dozen States is not worthy of a passing comment, then the party is in the dry rot, and cumbers the ground. Those who want sympathy when they are threatened with robbery will have to work up or simulate a little sympathy with the survivors of those who have been murdered, and with the dumb three-quarters of a million Republican voters, whose enforced surrender of political rights to the murderers has produced the peace sometimes mistakenly attributed to President Hayes' conciliation policy. The men who get sentimental over the murder question and the total subjugation of Southern Republicanism may be foolish and impractical, but they have votes and must be conciliated, if only to help defeat the Southern claims, you know.

We must gain 14 Northern Congressional districts in order to gain one majority in the next House of Representatives, and a Democratic Clerk makes the roll by which that House is to organize. If the priests and Levites would now save their pockets from the depredations of the awful Southern claimant, they must conciliate the good Samaritans, by joining them in denunciations of the thieves of Jericho. If they cannot do this, it may be concluded that they are not unfriendly to the thieves, in which case the latter have copartnership rights which may not be lightly interfered with.

These may be "bitter and extreme" views, but they are very firmly held by a class dangerously numerous, called radicals, one of the least of which number is,

Very respectfully yours,
GEORGE C. GORHAM.

The country will not fail to make a note of the fact that the Democratic House yesterday voted for an ex-Confederate General in preference to a wounded Union General, both Democrats, for the office of doorkeeper. And it should be added that the Democrats sought one of the more offensive samples of an ex-Confederate upon whom to confer their honors,—one who fled his country at the close of the rebellion, and refused to ask to have his disabilities removed until two months ago. Now, it would be a terrible thing if we should invoke the bloody shirt in response to this sort of conciliation, wouldn't it?—Traveller.

Senator Voorhees, who is now the most rabid of paper expansionists, is reminded by the Indianapolis Journal that he canvassed Indiana in 1864-5 "with a gold eagle in one pocket and a ten dollar greenback in the other; that he was wont to exhibit and praise the former and abuse and denounce the latter as a fatherless fugitive and a lawless bastard, utterly worthless."

The President's sublime self-satisfaction is one of the characteristics of a nature unequal to the responsibilities suddenly forced upon it.—New York Times.

Superfluous Women,

—BY—

MRS. [illegible]

(The Queen of the Platform.)

MRS. LIVERMORE has no equal as a lecturer either in America or England. John Stuart Mill speaks of her as one of the ablest women of the age. Of a ripe and varied scholarship, endowed with a calm and superb eloquence, and a judgment that is rarely at fault, she sways her audience with a royal authority and converts them in spite of themselves. All our citizens should improve this opportunity of hearing this most popular speaker. Mrs. LIVERMORE sails for Europe on the 27th of this month.

Admission, 25 cents.

Reserved Seats, 35 and 50 cents.

Sale will open Thursday morning, April 11.

Persons out of town can get good seats by sending to D. Bugbee & Co., Kenduskeag Bridge.

MAINE NEWS.

The Biddeford Murder.

Savage Pleads Guilty.

HIS CONFESSION OF THE DEED.

PORTLAND, April 10. Savage the murderer of Rose Vincent, was brought before Judge Chase of the Saco police court at 11 this forenoon. He appeared considerably excited and shed tears copiously. He is a fine looking man, has a splendid physique and very pleasant face, indicating anything but that of a villain. Savage pleaded guilty and was immediately ironed and taken to Alfred jail by officer Marr. This was done as a precautionary measure, the feeling being intense against him. Crowds flocked about both police stations, and for a long time refused to believe that the prisoner had been taken away. Before Savage made a confession last night he called officer Grant one side and asked what the penalty was in this State for such a murder. When told that it was imprisonment for life, he at once turned to the chief of police, Deering, and said: "Well, I killed her. I took her down in the bottom of the boat and choked her to death. We had both been drinking some. I killed her because I loved her too much." It is believed by the officer that Savage drugged the liquor that he gave the woman. Savage married his first wife in Canada and it is said that she died from his cruelty. His present wife lives in Saco and her former husband hung himself. Rose Vincent, the murdered woman, has a son in Methuen, Mass., who has been telegraphed to come and take charge of the body, which remains in the Biddeford police station.

The Victim's History.

LAWRENCE, Mass., April 10. Rose Vincent, the victim of the Biddeford tragedy, is well known in Methuen where she resided a number of years. She was married but did not live with her husband. She was a Canadian and her maiden name was Migrault. She came to Methuen from Stanstead, Canada, and has a brother now living in Methuen. Savage lived in Methuen two years ago and worked chopping and was considered a worthless fellow. His frequent visits to Mrs. Vincent, who lived alone on Railroad street, occasioned considerable scandal. The banks of this city were notified to-day to pay no money on the name of the murdered woman, but it is ascertained she had no money deposited.

FROM CALAIS.

Forgery.

CALAIS, April 10. Henry Hibbard, of Perry, attempted to pass a forged check on the Calais National Bank to-day. The forgery was detected. Hibbard escaped.

FROM HALLOWELL

Suicide.

HALLOWELL, April 10th. The wife of John Bishop, of Chelsea, committed suicide to-day. She had taken morphine enough to kill herself, and then cut her throat from ear to ear. She lingered several hours. It is said she had made an attempt at suicide before.

FROM ROCKLAND.

The Stone Cutters' Strike.

ROCKLAND, April 10. The strike of the stone cutters at Vinalhaven belonging to the Granite Cutters' Union continues. The strikers number about two hundred, are quiet and peaceable, but seem determined to hold out. They have received contributions from Hurricane and more is promised. Their committee had a second interview with Superintendent Bodwell of the Granite Company, yesterday, by invitation but no result was reached. A large number of blacksmiths and quarrymen, were discharged Monday, but are ready to work any time. Mr. Bodwell, President of the Company, is expected to arrive this evening.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS—Second Session.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 10.

Mr. Sargent, from the Naval Affairs Committee, reported a bill to regulate the appointment of cadet midshipmen, in the Naval Academy at Annapolis. Calendar.

Mr. Voorhees offered a resolution directing the Committee on Pensions to report a bill granting pensions to soldiers of the war of 1812, their widows and orphans, and said he would call it up on the 30th.

A bill to prevent depredations upon property in the District of Columbia was passed, and on motion of Mr. Hill the Senate took up the bill for the relief of John C McBarney, late Collector of Internal Revenue for the 2d district of Georgia. A debate upon the alleged deficiencies as apparently shown by the report of the Secretary of the Treasury in 1871 sprung up, Mr. Davis, of West Virginia, claiming that this report showed an actual defalcation of Collectors of Revenue of over $50,000,000, and Mr. Dawes contending it was but an apparent deficit growing out of the mode of counting in the Treasury Department, all uncollected revenue being charged to Collectors until finally settled by the Department.

Mr. Allison said that in the table referred to by Mr. Davis, the Collector whose case is now before the Senate, McBarney, stood a defaulter to the amount of over $50,000, while the report of the Committee showed he owed the Government but 3,000 which was taken by his his deputy without any fault on the part of McBarney.

After further debate the bill passed.

House.

A bill was introduced prohibiting Army or Navy Bands of music from making pecuniary engagements. Referred.

Among other bills introduced were the following: Authorizing issuing of Treasury notes, taking up greenbacks and National Bank notes; prohibiting contraction of the currency and repealing Internal Revenue laws; making it illegal for any member of either House of Congress to act as general advisory Attorney for certain corporations and patentees; joint resolution directing the Committee on Civil Service Reform of the two Houses, to inquire into the propriety of limiting Executive patronage by Constitutional amendent, and also into the propriety of adopting some new method of keeping the accounts of the Federal Government; joint resolution proposing a Constitutional amendment as to sessions of Congress. It provides that after 1880, there shall be but one session every two years unless when convened by the President. The House then went into Committe of the Whole on the pension appropriation bill.

MASSACHUSETTS.

A Heavy Defalcation.

FALL RIVER, April 10. S. Angier Chase confesses to having embezzled $480,000 of the money of the Union Mills, of which he was Treasurer, and the mill will probably be put into insolvency. The defalcation has been going on for a number of years, and has created immense surprise. He was formerly State Senator for two years, and a State Representative from this district, and was always regarded as a man of honor and one of the most prominent citizens.

FOREIGN NEWS.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Negotiations for a Back Down.

NEW YORK, April 10. The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Herald telegraphs that negotiations have been begun with England for the purpose of enabling both countries to back down from their present antagonistic position. It is suggested that Russia shall quit San Stefano, and the English fleet retire from the Dardanelles, thus enabling each nation to show a desire for consultation. We are not told whether the Russians propose to retire. We are told that they will certainly not leave Bulgaria until all matters relating to that portion of the disputed treaty are settled to their entire satisfaction.

The Effect of Gortschakoff's Reply.

A London despatch to the Herald says that copies of Gortschakoff's reply reached the Commons during the debate on the Queen's address and the effect was to immediately cause a more peaceable feeling. The hope expressed that England will no longer refuse to recognize the existence of the new order of things in Turkey, seemed to give many statesmen matter for contemplation. In high Russian official circles in London the opinion prevails that the document does not deal fully and peremptorily enough with the great questions at issue.

Russia's Position.

It is asserted that however mild and explanatory Prince Gortschakoff's reply may be it is impossible for Russia to tear up the treaty of San Stefano. Again it is asserted that although a slight rectification of the limits of Bulgarian may be agreed to the formation of a new Bulgaria south of the Balkans in a manner similar to that of the creation of the Moldo-Wallachian principalities in 1830, has been positively determined on by Russia. Russia cannot allow the result gained by blood to be lost and nothing further than a slight rectification of Bulgaria lines will be conceded. This determination as expressed looks very much like an ultimatum. If England desires war Russia may not refuse to meet her in the field and will rely on the gallantry and patriotism of her soldiery to vindicate her honor and dignity. The army that has reached Constantinople after heroic sacrifices will maintain the honor of Russia against all enemies. All rumors that have prevailed here during the past few days of the Russians yielding are totally unfounded. Russia cannot and will not yield.

Austrian Newspaper Comment.

VIENNA, April 10. Fremdenblatt says peace can only be maintained by Russia modifying the treaty of San Stefano in conjunction with the other powers. The Presse considers that England has already gained a moral victory for herself and England.

England View of Gortschakoff's Reply.

LONDON, April 10. Nearly all papers comment favorably on Gortschakoff's reply to Salisbury, and agree that it leaves an opening for the renewal of negotiations for a Congress. The situation is considered more pacific than at any time since the San Stefano treaty. The stock market decidedly firmer with an upward tendency. All European bourses are firmer to-day.

Various Statements.

LONDON, April 10. Though it is generally considered here that the debate in Parliament on the address thanking the Queen for calling out the Reserves has placed the Government's policy in a clearer light, Lord Derby's statement concerning the secret determination of the Cabinet which led him to resign, is the subject of much anxious curiosity.

It is reported in the Clubs that they are connected with orders already sent to Admiral Hornby which are contingent on the Russian movements near Constantinople.

Russian officials of rank at Bucharest declare that they fully expect the English fleet to succeed in forcing its way into the Black Sea in event of war, hence their efforts to increase the facilities for land transport over lines not accessible to interruption from the fleet, and so far distant as possible from the Austrian frontier. They have taken measures for constructing a military railway between Belgrade to the newly contemplated Benar and Ga atz line and Ismail, and also a short line connecting Rem with the wharves on the Danube.

A despatch from Pera states that 4000 are sick from San Stefano to Adrianople, nearly half of them with typhus, so that the Russian officers regard their position a very unsatisfactory.

The Times to-day says that it cannot but share Lord Hartington's regret that Sir Wilfrid Lawson, was not content with the debate in Parliament, without going to division on his amendment. The whole discussion, it says, has materially tended to clear the obscurities of a perilous situation, and it has certainly brought the prospect of peace nearer than before, but no practical inference can be drawn from the fact. Sixty-four members of the House of Commons think the present juncture is not a great emergency, while it is possible a good many erroneous and mischievous conclusions will be drawn from it both at home and abroad. The debate has not had the same reassuring effect abroad though the judgment founded on the telegraph summaries thereof may be received on the receipt of the full text of the speeches.

The speeches of Lords Beaconsfield and Salisbury are thought at Vienna to point to the probability of war, and to hold but small hope of a Congress, which is there believed the only possible way of reaching a pacific solution. This supposed attitude of England is not approved at Vienna, because the Austrian Government has made no provision for the eventuality of the final failure of the Congress project. It is said, however, that when the necessity of deciding is forced on Count Andrassy, he will undoubtedly resist Russia's demands and make an alliance with England; provided he can carry the Court party with him. With this contingency in view Russia has taken a firm grip on Roumania, and should the Government attempt to resist her will, the country would find itself in a most embarrassing position. Therefore it is by no means certain that the final policy of Roumania will coincide fully with the present manifestations of the popular feeling. Should the war be confined to England and Russia, Roumania can manage to escape serious consequences; but should Austria enter into action the Principality cannot avoid being crushed irreparably between the contending forces, no matter which belligerant she chooses as an ally.

Representative Hale, of Maine, presided.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES.

A bank president who was present at the conference with Sherman in New York Tuesday, says is a representitive meeting of bank presidents the conference was not large enough. There was only a small number of bank offic als present and many banks were not invited to send representatives, but the meeting had one good effect as it disposed of the delusion that there is an antagonism between the banks and Secretary Sherman.

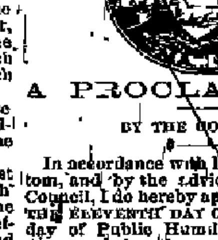
LOCAL MATTERS.

State of Maine.



A PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR.

In accordance with long established custom, and by the advice of the Executive Council, I do hereby appoint THURSDAY, THE ELEVENTH DAY OF APRIL, 1878, as a day of Public Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer, to be observed by the people of this State in solemn recognition of the obedience and worship due from us to Almighty God, in humble acknowledgement to our transgressions of His laws, and in earnest supplication for divine help and guidance.

Given at the Council Chamber, at Augusta, this twenty-fifth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and second.

SELDEN CONNOR.

By the Governor.

S. J. CHADBOURNE, Secretary of State.

Fast Day.

The city schools will be closed to-day.

The streets were well patronized yesterday, the weather being very pleasant.

The Penobscot Farmers' Club will meet at Orrington to-morrow morning at ten o'clock.

As to-day is a legal holiday there will be no paper issued from this office Friday morning.

We understand that there is to be another exhibition and sale of photographs in Unity Hall.

A correspondent at Lincoln writes that the ice left the river at that place at about noon yesterday.

The employes at the Maine Central station were made happy yesterday by the arrival of the pay train.

Messrs. Cutler & Eddy received four rafts of lumber yesterday, the first that have come down river this season.

C. P. Stetson, Esq., John Varney, Esq., and Judge Humphrey were reappointed yesterday as examining committee of the Penobscot Bar.

To-day being a legal holiday the Post Office will be open from 8:30 to 9.30 in the morning and the usual time in the evening after the arrival of the Western mail.

The sale of tickets for Mrs. Livermore's lecture on "Superfluous Women", opens at Bogue's this morning. The indications are that they will meet with a rapid sale.

BOWLER AND MERRILL. To the advertisement of this long established and well known firm we would refer all our readers who have business to transact in stocks and bonds.

The Grand Army boys at Portland will have a grand camp fire to-night. Mayor Hamlin of this city, Department Commander, will be present, together with other prominent gentlemen.

Mr. William Nanery, the popular theatrical manager of St. John, under whose management Carlotta Leclerg and Nell Warner appeared in this city for the first time, was at the Exchange last night.

The Maine Central Railroad Company are housing their snow plows for the season. They hardly paid for their keeping last season, as they were called into requisition but once, and then in the mouth of March.

Two of the firemen who were stationed at the rear of the burning building last night, were obliged to jump from the wharf into the stream as the end of the building fell out. They were helped from the water, uninjured, by some of their friends.

The Semi-annual session of the Grand Division Sons of Temperance of the State of Maine, will be held in Carmel April 24th 1878, commencing at 9 o'clock in the forenoon. Excursion tickets will be sold on the Maine Central Railroad for one and one third fare for the round trip.

FIRE. Yesterday morning a house and barn owned by B. F. Godfrey and located about two miles out on the Kittredge road, was destroyed by fire. It is thought that the fire caught from a defect in the chimney, as when it was first discovered the roof was in flames. Nearly everything in the lower part of the house was saved and a portion of the things in the second story were removed. No alarm was given. The amount of the loss is unknown.

Messrs. N. T. Hill & Co., of Bucksport, will launch the new ship built by them the past season, one week from to-day. She is 1200 tons burden and rates A1, and is named the Penobscot, and owned in Bucksport and by John S. Emery & Co., of Boston. Capt. Isaiah L. Chipman, of Bucksport, will command her.

FARMERS' CONVENTION. It will be seen by a notice in another column, that the Penobscot County Farmers' Club will hold their next meeting at Orrington Town Hall, Friday, April 12. Subject for discussion—"What constitutes a good farmer." Also, "Is it advisable to make sheep husbandry a more prominent feature in farming?"

Bangor Division No. 14, Sons of Temperance, will hold a Fast day service in Temperance Hall this evening. The following officers were installed by D. G. W. P., H. A. Fowler for the present quarter at the last meeting: W. P., H. J. Lemont' M. D.; W. A., Charles Collins; R. S., Austin Fowler; A. R. S., C. B. Carter, jr.; F. S., John S. Kimball; Chaplain, Mary A. Johnson; C., George O. Lawrence, Jr.; I. S., Geo. M. Wentworth; O. S., Amos Pickard; organist, E. P. Dunham.

PARISH MEETING. At the annual meeting of the Second Baptist Society held last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Dea. Elijah Low, Moderator; Geo. W. E. Barrows, Clerk; Elijah Low, James H. Smith and Vincent Willard, Assessors; J. P. Page, Collector; Gilbert L. Leighton, Treasurer; Geo. Ed. Ingalls, Auditor; Hartford Pond, Frederic A. Pottle and Geo. W. E. Barrows, Standing Committee. The financial affairs of the Society were reported in a better condition than for some time past, and an adjourned meeting voted for the second day of May next.

MESSRS. MORRISON & HUNTING'S teams, consisting of forty horses, arrived at Greenville, from Sober Brook, which enters Harrington Lake, Monday noon, April 8th. The teams were worked hauling in logs until Saturday night. They have put in over 7,000,000 ft. of the best quality of pine and spruce lumber during the winter, which is considered by good judges to be one of the best winter's work ever done on the Penobscot river. We learn from Mr. J. C. Holmes, their clerk, that snow has fallen there for the last three weeks, and that when he left, Saturday last, there was eighteen inches of snow on the ground.

SERVICES ON FAST DAY. The following is the church record of this city and vicinity, for to-day (Fast Day) Union services will be held at 10.30 A. M. Central church—Discourse by Rev. Cyrus Hamlin, D. D., on the late war in Turkey, and of its results in that land. A collection will be taken up for the relief of refugees in the immediate vicinity of Roberts' College. Chubbuck, the Evangelist. Brewer—Rev. Samuel T. Page will preach at the Methodist church in Brewer at 10.30 o'clock, A. M.

CITY OF RICHMOND. The steamer City of Richmond arrived at her wharf in this city yesterday for the first time this season. It was the intension of the Company to place the steamer Lewiston on the route yesterday, but as she has recently been painted and was not quite dry, the Richmond came on in her stead. She will return to Portland this morning, and will then be hauled off and repainted and generally over hauled, the Lewiston taking her place. She will come on to the route again about the first of next month. She has been running all winter, and her popular commander Capt. Kilby informs us that the weather has been extremely favorable for steamboating, the worst storm of the season having occurred a week ago Saturday when they encountered a blind ing snow storm, and laid over at Mil bridge.

"DIAMONDS." We would remind our readers of Dr. A. C. Hamlin's lecture this evening at the Art Rooms. The subject is one in which much interest is taken by all classes; and from the flattering remarks of those who listened to his lecture last Thursday, we predict a crowded house to-night. The lecture is given at the request of many who were unable to attend last week on account of the unpleasant weather, and also at the earnest desire of quite a number who were fortunate enough to hear it. The lecture this evening will undoubtedly be more interesting than the last A history and description of the gems of Russia, Saxony and Austria, will be given, and he will also describe the celebrated Ester Hazy Regalia, the Turkish collections; also the French Crown, and many other valuable gems. The fac similies which were exhibited at the last lecture will also be shown this evening, and the history of each given.

Last Night's Fire.

Last night at about 10 o'clock fire was discovered in the building on Broad street owned by the Bryant estate and occupied by Mr. J. E. Kent for the purpose of storing hay. An alarm was immediately sounded and the department were soon on their way to the scene of the conflagration. The doors of the office were broken open and the books and papers removed. The fire started at the rear of the building and spread with great rapidity, and when it was ascertained that a horse was in the building the fire had made such headway that it was impossible to save the animal. The building contained some ninety tons of hay, two carriages and a horse, the property of Mr. Kent. The hay was insured in Howard's agency for $1,000, and one of the carriages was insured for $150. Mr. Kent's loss will be about $300. A vessel was on the way from Boston with a load with the hay. The building is very old and was uninsured. It was moved from Castine and erected on the present site about forty years ago. There was also a low shed connected with the building, owned by the Larrabee estate, which was uninsured. The fire was either the work of an incendiary or caught from a spark from some person's pipe, who may have been loafing around the rear of the building. The fire department did good work and at one time had seven streams of water on the fire.

CITY AFFAIRS.

A special meeting of the City Council was held last evening. First the Board of municipal officers transacted the following business.

Permission was granted Mrs Lynch to enter the Hancock street sewer on payment of $10.00.

The petition of J. B. Foster, for permission to enter the Kenduskeag Avenue Sewer was referred to the Committee on Sewers with full authority to determine the amount said Foster shall pay for such permission.

Petition of B. A. Page et al. for a Sewer on Union street referred to Committee on Sewers.

Judge Goodenow appeared before the Board and asked a hearing in the matter of his salary and submitted to the Board a comparative statement of the amount of business of the office and the fees paid in, for the last twenty years. Back in the time of service of Judge Humphrey the fees paid in would average yearly about $775. The business kept increasing, and up to the time of his (Goodenow's) occupancy of the office, it had more than trebled. The salary was increased proportionately up to the present time, and two years ago the salary was unanimously fixed at $1300, the fees at that time being $1800. The last year the fees were over $2100. The business increase was mainly owing to the enforcement of the liquor law. Other officers of the Court received a proportionate benefit from such increase in business. The Judge gets no compensation except his salary. Were the work all done in the capacity of a Trial Justice the fees would all go to the Justice, and under the circumstances, having a commission, from the Governor and holding that position, he only asked a fair and reasonable action in the matter, with knowledge of the facts.

With no discussion upon the matter the Board postponed the subject for the present for further inquiry.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

A communication from Treasurer Crosby was read calling attention to need of repairs on chimnies of City Hall and such repairs were ordered. Another communication from him relative to covering valuable record books now in a delapidated condition, with canvass in order to preserve them, was read.

Alderman C. P. Brown inquired as to the cost and number of books to be recovered.

Alderman Stetson said these records were valuable and he thought the matter should be given in charge of the Committee on City Property.

Some volumes from the City Clerk's vault were brought to show the repairs needed. Alderman C. P. Brown examined them and said they would do very well for two or three years to come. He pronounced the movement to recover them needless, but Alderman Stetson's suggestion was acted on, the communication ordered on file and an order for Committee on City Property to inquire into and act upon the same passed, also an order to repair the City books, the job to be given to the lowest bidder, passed. The provision for giving the job to the lowest bidder was an amendment by Alderman C. P. Brown.

Petition of the "Crusade" for the free use of City Hall for its temperance meetings as heretofore, was granted.

Order for the employment of some person to steer the fishway in the dam free and unobstructed for the passage of fish came up and Alderman C. P. Brown inquired as to the compensation paid such person. The Mayor stated that the person employed under a similar order last year was paid $1.50 per week for a portion of the time and $2.50 per week for the remainder.

Mr. Brown said the expense seemed more than necessary and he didn't see anything for a man to do.

Alderman Stetson read from the Revised Statutes the provision making it obligatory on owners to keep fishways in order and showing that the penalty was from $5 to $20 per day fine for neglect.

Alderman W. H. Brown said that this fishway was a structure costing several thousand dollars, which with other reasons made it necessary to care for it properly.

Alderman C. P. Brown, being asked by the Mayor if he was familiar with the structure of the fishway, said he never saw one, but he thought less money should be expended in caring for it. The order which authorizes the Mayor to employ a keeper was finally passed.

Petition of E. H. Cass & als. for reduction of Undertaker's fees, and charges for hacks at Funerals, was referred to the Committee on By-Laws and Police Regulations.

Petition of D. O'Leary & als. for repairs on Boyd street, referred to Committee on Streets and Highways.

Petition of B. H. Mace & als. for sidewalk on State street to Hichborn hill referred to Committee on Streets and Highways.

Petition of L. March & als. for a coat of gravel on Cumberland street referred to Committee on Streets and Highways.

Petition of T. N. Egery & als. for road referred to combined Committees on Streets and Highways and Water.

A request came in from the Water Board for 200 additional copies of the Board's report for exchange with Boards of other cities, and an order for them was offered with the explanation that the matter was already in type and that they could be printed now at a less rate than to have it re-set.

Alderman C. P. Brown enquired as to the expense of these additional copies and said that he couldn't see any need of them nor any good that would come of such exchange; also that the report was embodied in the regular City Report and that there was an abundance of them.

Alderman W. H. Brown suggested that the Board derived valuable information from an exchange of reports and that it looked discourteous to the Board to refuse them their request. Alderman Stetson also pointed out the discourtesy of a refusal.

Alderman C. P. Brown said if these reports were to be printed it should be done as cheaply as possible and the order should be fixed to cover this point, or the expense might be brought up to $200. It was suggested that it would not be over $25 at the outside, and Alderman Pickard suggested that the order be amended so that they be printed under the direction of the Committee on Water, the chairman being the complaining Alderman himself, who pronounced the publication of any additional copies "a put up job." As amended by Alderman Pickard the order was passed and sent down to the lower board for concurrence. It came back non-concurred in and a Committee of Conference fixed the number of additional copies at 150 and the order was then passed in concurrence.

Order for special Committee to inquire into and report what officers or employees of the city are paid by the City Treasurer and whose compensations is not fixed by the Council. Passed and Alderman C. P. Brown appointed.

Report of Committee on water on petitions to abate water tax against "Childrens Home" and "Home for Aged Women" accepted and orders abating said tax against each of said institutions passed.

Order for proposals for keeping roads in repair in the outskirts of the city, and for shoeing and supplying feed for the city horses was passed.

The resignation of Prof. J. S. Sewell as member of the School Committee was tendered and accepted, and the Boards went into Joint Convention for the election of a member of said Committee, to fill the vacancy caused by such resignation.

In Joint Convention.

On ballot for member of School Committee the vote stood:

Whole number ballots thrown	26
James H. Crosby had	19
James Boyd had	7

and James H. Crosby was therefore declared elected.

There being no further business the Convention separated.

An order was submitted by Alderman Pickard for the Superintending School Committee to reorganize the schools and adjust the compensation to be paid to the several teachers and their assistants, that the aggregate amount of expenditures for the public schools shall not exceed $25,000. He then stated that he had been comparing the expenses of the School Department from and including 1856 to 1876. In the former year he said the expense was fourteen thousand and some odd hundreds of dollars and now it was thirty-one thousand and some odd hundreds. He has carefully been through the statistics and now there are 75 scholars less than when the schools cost less. The attendance he said was about 50 per cent. of the whole number. Some of the measures of economy he suggested were that primary teachers receive $7.45 per week, which he said allowed them 15 cents for one day each week that they did not work. They are paid now $9 per week, he said, which would be $1.50 per day and he would reduce them 15 per cent, this reduction, he said, would still allow them $1.50 per day, for the days they worked with 15 cents for Saturday when they did not work. He said he would not say that they did not work hard, but if they devoted themselves to the schools more they would work harder.

He said that Mr. Robinson was employed to take charge of the two grammar schools at a salary of $1,200 or $1,400 a year and taught no classes. Alderman C. P. Brown here interrupted with the remark that he (Robinson) was the man that did the flogging. Mr. Pickard went on to say that he would dispense with one or two of the female teachers in these schools and employ two males; one for each school, who should hear classes and receive $300 each for their services. Next he would change the terms from one of twelve and two of thirteen weeks each, to three terms of eleven weeks each. He further continued to read statistics of the expense of the department in various years between the two dates mentioned above, and in reply to Alderman C. P. Brown, said he had investigated the subject and the schools could be run for $25,000.

Alderman Stetson suggested an amendment to the order as follows:

"For the current municipal year and make report thereon at an early day."

He had been interested in the presentation made by the Alderman from Ward 7 but he did not wish to peremptorily fix the appropriation at $25,000. He thought the schools might be run as efficiently and at a less cost by some system. Alderman Pickard accepted Mr. Stetson's addition to his order.

Alderman W. H. Brown said that he considered the primary school teachers an overworked class and he did not think it right to cut down their pay.

On motion of Alderman C. P. Brown the order as amended by Mr. Stetson was passed.

An order was introduced by Alderman Harriman for the removal of the Babcock engine from the Fire Department and he gave the cost of running it (about $800) saying that he was not prejudiced against this engine but if the Department was to be reduced this seemed to him, for the present, about all the reduction that could be made.

Alderman W. H. Brown objected to its removal believing it to be an unwise proposal of economy. The city has been remarkably fortunate in the matter of fires and should not rest in security on that account at the crippling of the Department might bring about a serious calamity. Other cities have suffered heavily and we are as liable to such misfortunes if we become careless.

Alderman C. P. Brown, thought it was of no benefit and should be removed. The expenses of the department are enormous and this keeping horses hitched up and water boiling night and day was an uncalled for expense unless there was a necessity for it which he could not see. The Holly was ample protection, and nine times in ten the damage was more from water than fire.

The order received a passage by vote of 5 to 2.

An order to reduce the number of men in "Holly Hose" and "Elijah Low" Hose Companies to 12 men each, was introduced by Alderman Harriman, and he recommended that the Union Hose remain the same, and the pay of the men be unchanged. The order received a passage.

The question of compensation of the Engineer of the Fire Engines came up and on motion of Alderman C. P. Brown it was fixed at $300, for the present year.

There was some informal talk during the evening concerning the School Committee serving without pay, and although the statute provides that they shall have $1.50 per day for their services, Aldermen Stetson and C. P. Brown, thought that their acceptance to serve without pay, was a waiver of the statute provision. No action was taken in the matter, however, though Alderman Stetson favored the salary of last year ($50) being given them. Alderman Pickard thought as their service occupied but thirty days or less of work they could not make the expenses over $50, which Alderman C. P. Brown, agreed to, unless they should be sharp.

An order for the Committees on streets and Highways, and Fire Department to ascertain what horses belonging to the city may be disposed of in said Departmens and sell the same was passed.

IN COMMON COUNCIL.

Order for the payment of $3 per week to Miss Eliza A. Thayer during the remainder of her life not exceeding, however, the term of one year from date was refused a passage by a vote of 3 to 13. The above order was introduced by Councilman Lyon, who advocated its adoption and was opposed by Councilmen Thompson, Gillespie and Webb, and it was defeated by the vote above given. Concurrent action was taken on all other matters save the order for additional copies of Water Board's report, which as amended by the Committee of Conference was concurred in.

MILLINERY OPENINGS.

The weather being very mild and pleasant yesterday, the ladies were out in large numbers, and the different millinery establishments where spring goods were exhibited were all well patronized during the day. As had previously been announced there were four millinery openings, and we will now proceed and make mention of them in the order that they were visited by our reporter:

DWELLEY & CO.

This is one of the oldest millinery establishments in the city, and is well known to all of our lady readers. The lower portion of the store is devoted to fancy goods, and on entering you are invited to walk up-stairs and see the display of hats and bonnets. On reaching the room one is almost at loss as to where they shall commence, as there is a very tempting array on all sides. On a large stand in the centre of the room, are hats and bonnets of all shape and styles, many of them being very captivating. The room was crowded full all day, and many were the exclamations of delight as the ladies discovered some late novelty. From here we pass down the street to

C. W. COFFIN'S.

Here we also encounter a large number of ladies busily engaged in admiring the latest styles of hats and bonnets. Mr. Coffin has recently returned from New York where he has selected a stock of goods especially for the spring trade. The goods are all exceedingly pretty and will bear the closest examination. Here are walking hats, evening hats, and childrens hats, trimmed in the latest and prettiest manner, and ready to adorn the head of some fair one.

MISS SEAVEY.

Miss Seavey has recently started in business in a part of C. L. Dakin's art store, but she received a full share of the ladies attention yesterday. Her display of hats was very fine and the ladies were loud in their praise of her taste in triming and arranging them. Other goods were also displayed, among which real and artificial flowers were particularly noticeable.

MISS DAGGETT'S

This is another new establishment, occupying a portion of Downing's store on Main street. Hats and bonnets trimmed by skillful fingers were tastily arranged about the store, and attracted a large attention from the ladies who were out examining the goods.

MASQUERADE BALL.

A Large Gathering and Pleasant Time.

The masquerade, under the auspices of the Ruskin Club, occurred at Music Hall last evening and passed off very pleasantly. The galleries were full of spectators, every seat being occupied, and many were obliged to stand. At a little past eight o'clock the grand entrance took place and caused considerable amusement as many of the costumes were quite comical, while others were very pretty. At the close of the fourth dance the masks were removed. The music by Andrews' orchestra was superb, and the affair was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The following is a list of the costumes as accurately as they could be obtained:

MT. HOPE CEMETERY.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier

The question is frequently asked by proprietors of lots in Mt. Hope Cemetery, as to what are their rights in their management and control. At the recent annual meeting of the Corporation the Treasurer was directed to publish an answer to the enquiry. In compliance with that instruction the following statement is made.

All the proprietors of such lots hold under deed containing some half dozen "conditions and limitations" the purport of which is—that the owner has the right to enclose the lot with a suitable wall or fence, that the lot shall be used for no other purpose than a place of burial for the dead, that no trees within the lot or border shall be cut down or destroyed without the consent of the Executive Committee. That the proprietor may cut stones, monuments, or sepulchral structures and cultivate trees, shrubs and plants on the lot, and that if the trees or shrubs on the lot shall be detrimental to other lots or paths or, dangerous or inconvenient to passengers, the Executive Committee may remove them. Subject to these restrictions the owners of lots have the right to manage and control them in any manner they choose consistent with the nature and use of the lots as lots for burial purposes. They are under no obligation to employ any particular person to work upon or take care of the lots, but are at liberty to work themselves or employ others at their pleasure.

The City Ordinance however prohibits any person except undertakers duly appointed or their assistents, acting in their behalf, from removing or burying or causing to be removed or buried, the body of any deceased person.

Every person owning a lot in the Cemetery is by virtue of such ownership a member of the Corporation and entitled to vote at any and all meetings thereof.

It may be added that the fees of undertaker for removal and for burial of bodies are established by the Mayor and Aldermen and the Corporation have of course nothing to do with that subject, the undertaker being a city officer, in the appointment of whom the Corporation has no voice.

The above is believed to be a full answer to the questions referred to in the instructions of the meeting in question.

Treasurer.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do). I tried —— and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully, D. W. GRAY, M.D.,
Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son, Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.
Muscatine, Iowa, March 27 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles, and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 250 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but, unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1 00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

To the Honorable John E. Godfrey, Judge of Probate within and for the County of Penobscot:

Respectfully represents Sarah Haskell, wife of William T. Haskell, of Monroe, in the County of Waldo, that Ephraim G. Thurston, formerly of Bangor in the County of Penobscot, now deceased, did on the nineteenth day of December, 1873, make a legal contract with her to convey certain real estate, to wit: The same being situate in said Monroe, and being in the 1000 acre tract, and lot No. 17, and a part of lots No. 1 and 5, as particularly described in a deed from Robert C. Grout to said Sarah Haskell, dated 9th Nov., 1872, and recorded in Waldo Registry of Deeds, Vol. 173, page 386, and that the said Ephraim G. Thurston was prevented by death from making said conveyance, and that your petitioner has performed the conditions required of her by the terms of said contract. Wherefore your petitioner respectfully prays that Harry D. Thurston, Administrator of the goods and estate of the said Ephraim G. Thurston, may be authorized to execute deeds to carry said contract into effect.

And, as in duty bound will ever pray.
Dated at Monroe, this 19th day of March, A. D. 1878.

BOSTON, October 19, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, ESQ.—Dear Sir: you procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot.

The undersigned, Guardian of Orin J. Cookson, minor heir of Isaiah Cookson, late of Plymouth, in said County, deceased, respectfully represents that said minor is seized and possessed of the following described real estate, viz:

A strip of land in Etna in said County, containing about fifteen acres; same conveyed to said Orin by Joseph W. Eaton, and is all the real estate said Orin owns in said Etna, it being the same described in a deed recorded in the Registry of Deeds for said County.

That it would be for the benefit of said Minor that said real estate should be sold, and the proceeds thereof put out at interest, or otherwise used for his benefit.

He therefore prays that license may be granted him to sell and convey the above described real estate at public or private sale, according to the requirement of law.

To the Honorable JOHN APPLETON, one of the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court of said State:

Humbly shows the undersigned, Trustees of the Newport Savings Bank, of Newport, in the County of Penobscot, in said State, and the State Bank Examiner, that said Savings Bank is insolvent by reason of loss of, and by depreciation in the value of a portion of its assets, without the fault of the Trustees thereof, that your petitioners respectfully ask your Honor to appoint a time for the examination of the affairs of said Bank, and cause notice thereof to be given to all parties interested in such manner as your Honor may prescribe, and if upon an examination of its assets, and liabilities, and from other evidence produced at the time appointed, your Honor shall be satisfied of the facts above set forth, and that said Corporation has not exceeded its powers nor failed to comply with any of the rules, restrictions and conditions provided by law, that Your Honor may see fit, if you should deem it for the interest of the depositors therein and be public, by proper decree to reduce the deposit account of each depositor, so as to divide such loss pro rata among the depositors, thereby rendering the Corporation solvent so that its further proceedings shall not be hazardous to the public or those having, or placing funds in its custody, and to make such other orders and decrees in the premises as may be authorized or required by Section 36 of Chapter 313, of the Public Laws of 1877, approved February 9, 1877, and as in duty bound will ever pray.

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons having their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from 7½ to 8 P. M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $22.80 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars.

Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.

DOMESTIC POSTAGE.

FIRST CLASS.

All Letters must be Prepaid—Letters for the Mails in the United States, three cents the half ounce or single rate. City letters two cents half ounce or single rate.

SECOND CLASS.
Newspapers.

All regular newspapers must be prepaid at the office of publication, at the rate of two cents per pound for each issue on weekly papers or those published oftener than once a week, less frequently than once a week, three cents. The same law applies to dealers.

County papers free, except to letter carrier offices, i.e. papers coming to this office, if published in County, are subject to postage. Daily papers published in County, if delivered by carrier, one cent each, to be prepaid by stamps.

Postage to Canada.—Same as in the States on letters and papers, pre payment compulsory; merchandise limited to 8 oz., postage 10 cents.

THIRD CLASS.

TRANSIENT PRINTED MATTER AND BOOKS AND MERCHANDISE.

One Cent for Two Ounces.

Almanacs, books (printed), calendars, catalogues, corrected proofs, hand bills, magazines, maps—lithographed or engraved—music, printed sheets, newspapers, occasional publications pamphlets, posters, proof sheets, prospectuses.

One cent for each ounce.

Blank books, bank cards, book manuscripts, card boards and other flexible materials, chromo lithographs, circulars, engravings, envelopes, flexible patterns, letter envelopes, letter paper, lithographs, merchandise, models, ornamental paper, postal cards when sent in bulk and not addressed, photographs, photographic paper, printed blanks, printed cards, sample cards, samples of ores, metals, minerals and merchandise, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots and scions, stereoscopic views.

All packages of matter of third class must be so wrapped or enveloped, with open sides or ends, that their contents may be readily and thoroughly examined by postmasters without destroying the wrappers.

The sender of a package of third class matter may write his or her name on the wrapper with the word "from," but nothing more, without subjecting the whole to letter postage.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

All letters remaining in the office are advertised on Monday of each week. If not claimed in one month thereafter, they are then forwarded to the Dead Letter office.

MONEY ORDERS.

Especial attention is called to the Money Order system, as a safe and cheap method of transmitting small sums through the mails. Orders are issued in sums of not more than fifty dollars. Larger amounts can be transmitted, to the same person at the same time, by additional orders.

RATES.

On orders not exceeding $15, 10 cents.
" over $15 and not exceeding $30, 15 cents.
" over $30 and not exceeding $40, 20 cents.
" over $40 and not exceeding $50, 25 cents.

Money Orders can also be obtained on England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Switzerland and German States.

Never put Money in a Letter—Always Procure a Money Order.

If money is to be remitted, a Postal Money Order should be obtained. If upon point, where there is no Money Order Office, then the letter should be Registered. Money should never be enclosed in an ordinary letter.

Office Hours—From 8 A. M. to 6 P. M.

REGISTRY DEPARTMENT.

All valuable letters should be Registered, unless a Money Order is obtained. Under the present system of Registration, letters are transmitted with perfect safety.

Letters may be Registered by paying postage in full, and a Registration fee in stamps, for—
United States, 10 cents.
Great Britain and Ireland, and all Countries having a postal treaty with the United States, 10 cents.

Passage including State Room, $3, meals extra. Goods forwarded to and from Philadelphia, Montreal, Quebec, St. John, and all parts of Maine.

Freight taken at the lowest rates.

Shippers are requested to send their freight to the Steamers as early as 4 P. M. on the days they leave Portland. For further information apply to HENRY FOX, Gen'l Agent, Portland.

J. F. AMES, Agent, Pier 38, E. R., New York.

Tickets and State Rooms can also be obtained at 22 Exchange Street, Portland
